GENERAL WOOD RUSHES HALT ORDERS

Gen. Steever Told to Use Force to Prevent Texas Militia from Crossing Border

AMERICANS SAID TO BE IN PERIL AT MATAMORAS

U. S. Troops Ordered to Border
Expected to Arrive on Scene Today

WASHINGTON, Feb. 25.—Government officials state tonight that they are in close touch with the situation near Brownsville, Texas, where four Texas troops, sent by order of Governor Colquitt, threaten to cross the border to protect Americans reported in danger at Matamoros. Federal cavalry and infantry are rushing to the border under orders from Washington to prevent them crossing. No further trouble is reported at Matamoros.

MORE TROOPS ORDERED TO PROCEED TO GALVESTON
FT. LEAVENWORTH, Kas., Feb. 25.—Three companies of the Third Battalion of Engineers, numbering 360 men and sixteen officers, were ordered today to proceed to Galveston. All men and officers stationed here have been ordered to Kansas City to join the troop trains.

NEBRASKA MILITIA ORDERED TO RECRUIT TO FULL FORCE
OMAHA, Feb. 25.—Orders have been received to recruit the Nebraska militia to full force. The object is unknown, unless it is for border duty.

Governor Colquitt's Action
WASHINGTON, Feb. 25.—The action of Governor Colquitt of Texas this morning in ordering four companies of state militia to Brownsville, Texas, after hearing of danger to Americans reported as being held for $20,000 ransom by the Huerta government at Matamoros, Mexico, aroused excitement in the War Department here. Orders were immediately sent by General Leonard Wood, chief of staff, to Brigadier General Steever, in command of the United States troops on the border, to hasten to Brownsville and use such force as was necessary to restrain the state troops from any invasion of Mexican territory.

Governor Colquitt's action resulted from the receipt of a telegram from Captain Head, in charge of the Texas militia at Brownsville, asking permission to cross the border to protect the consulate and American interests at Matamoros, which he had been informed by Consul Joseph E. Johnston at that place, were in danger. Governor Colquitt at once ordered the additional state troops to Brownsville and wired Captain Head to notify the Mexican officer in command at Matamoros that his life would be forfeit if a single Texan was harmed. Captain Head's telegram was repeated to the officer commanding the United States troops at Fort Sam Houston.

BADE CAPT. HEAD TO AWAIT ORDERS BEFORE MOVING
However, Governor Colquitt cautioned Captain Head to await orders before action. His telegram was as follows:

"Telegram received. Do not cross river unless you receive orders to do so. Request American consul and Americans to come to Brownsville."

TEN THOUSAND MEN LEAVING FOR BORDER
WASHINGTON, Feb. 25.—With nearly 10,000 soldiers en route to or preparing to leave for the mobilization camp at Galveston, President Taft reiterated his determination not to bring on a war with Mexico by intervention. At the same time, in fulfillment of his promise to "lay the cards on the table" for President Wilson, orders were written at the war department for the dispatch of two additional brigades to the Mexican border.

The troops now en route to Galveston or ordered to proceed there comprise all those in the central department commanded by Gen. W. H. Carter at Chicago. The Fifth brigade

MAN AND DOG ARE JUMPED BY A WILDCAT

A wildcat that a dog made wilder, made things very lively for a few minutes yesterday for Postmaster C. Echenique of San Juan Capistrano, while he was riding horseback not far from that historic town. Accompanied by his dog, Uncle Sam's postal representative was jogging along the road mentally figuring upon the beneficial effects of the rain. When he saw his dog take after a wildcat, which the canine promptly treed. About the time his dogship was making his loudest bark, the cat decided to open hostilities, and springing from the tree branches, landed fairly on the back of Mr. Fido. Then there was something really doing. Mr. Echenique went to his dog's assistance and kicked at the wild beast with his heavy spurred boots, but missing, the cat turned on him and sent its glistering teeth viciously through his boots. Mr. Echenique kept kicking, however, and several hard jabs with his spurs finally put the quietus upon the animal. The wounded postmaster came to Santa Ana today to have his injured foot given medical attention. His dog was also somewhat cut up but not seriously hurt.

RAINFALL WAS RAIN NOT OVER RECORD ONE FOR STATE PREDICTION OF "OLD PROB"

Beneficent Downpour General

California
Orange County Favored by the

BENEFITS ARE ENORMOUS; DAMAGES ARE TRIFLING

Los Angeles Received Brunt of Flood Feature—Snow Heavy in Mountains

LOS ANGELES, Feb. 25.—The rains continued today although the crest of the storm is believed to be past. All rain records were broken with 6.70 inches for the storm to date. Alhambra had the heaviest rain, with more than 8 inches. Only minor damage was done here. The rainfall was general over Southern California. The lightest rains were in Redlands and Riverside vicinities.

RECORD RAIN WAS MOST BENEFICIAL TO COUNTRY

LOS ANGELES, Feb. 25.—A record-breaking rain beneficially visited this city and Southern California yesterday and last night, almost to the extent of a deluge, with but little of the bad effects of the latter. Indeed, so gentle and uniform was the rainfall in most places that it soaked the earth and will return millions to the ranchmen and fruit growers within the next few months.

In this and other localities the rainfall for the storm reached approximately a third of the entire season's rain. At midnight last night the record here was 6.02, with rain still falling, with the season's mark at 10.97; at Pasadena for the storm, 7.62, and 14.40 for the season; at Monrovia, 5.93 for the storm, 11.38 for the season; Whittier, 3.80 for storm and 7.40 for the season; Alhambra, 8.08 for the storm, 14.82 for the season.

In Los Angeles, flood conditions prevailed in sections, washing out hill sections, undermining some foundations, deluging basements and first floors of a few business buildings and marooning some dwellings of Moulton street, flooding thoroughfares, and tearing out sections of pavement in the Wilshire boulevard and Normandie avenue sections.

Street railway as well as steam railway traffic was more or less demoralized, transfers being made on several of the P. E. lines.

Snow in the mountains fell with the rain to the extent of several feet in the canyons.

Rain in San Bernardino
SAN BERNARDINO, Feb. 25.—The rain record for San Bernardino for the season topped the eight inch mark last night, the gauge yesterday morning showing that half an inch had fallen during the night previous. The total for the season is 6.57 inches. The mountains are covered with several feet of snow. Indications point to more rain today.

From Pinescott two feet of snow on the level is reported. Yesterday the temperature was very low at that point in the mountains.

The snowfall all along the San Bernardino range from Old Baldy on the west to San Jacinto peak on the south-east is the heaviest in several years.

Storm at Anaheim
ANAHEIM, Feb. 25.—The rainfall for the last two days varies somewhat in this section. There has been a general downpour since Sunday noon, the precipitation at Anaheim being 2.77 inches to 10 o'clock yesterday morning. At Placentia 3.25 inches fell to 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon. For La Habra Valley 2.50 inches fell. The rainfall at Fullerton was 2.55 inches and at Yorba 2.50 inches. The precipitation at Garden Grove is 2.70 inches.

At the 6000-acre Bixby ranch, fourteen miles east of Anaheim in the Santa Ana Canyon, the rainfall is 3 inches. The river was rising last night.

THE INCOME TAX AMENDMENT NOW EFFECTIVE IN U.S.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 25.—The income tax amendment to the United States constitution became effective at noon through a formal proclamation by the secretary of state. This is the first constitutional amendment adopted since the civil war changes in the constitution.

WHOLESALE KILLING OF LOYAL MADERO SOLDIERS AT SAUZ

Huerta Announces Quiet in Mexico City
—Diaz and De La Barra Aspiring
To Mexico's Presidency

EL PASO, Feb. 25.—Ninety-five federal volunteer soldiers were executed late yesterday at Sauz, below Juarez. They composed part of the garrison which revolted Sunday, angered at the killing of ex-President Madero, their former leader.

One at a time, advised received here relate, the soldiers were stood against an adobe wall. Ninety-five times the firing squad aimed and fired. Most of the men are said to have displayed much courage, declining the execution mask.

More than fifty of the garrison escaped before the arrival early yesterday of a strong detachment of federal regular troops from Chihuahua City. The rebels of a day had cut the Mexican Central railway, which was repaired a few hours later. Five of the volunteer officers escaped death and will be sent to Juarez.

QUIET IN MEXICO CITY— GAROW DEATH CONFIRMED

MEXICO CITY, Feb. 25.—President Huerta remained in seclusion at the palace, personally passing on all details of the municipal and federal government. Conditions are reported as improved in all sections. The acceptance of the official version of the killing of Madero and Suarez by Ambassador Wilson has relieved the Americans. It is believed Wilson moved discreetly in order to prevent popular agitation.

A dispatch received today confirmed the report that an American engineer, Boris Garow, was killed in the rebel attack on Nueva Buena Vista. Several British and German employees of the mining company there are reported as missing.

DIAZ AND DE LA BARRA BOTH OUT FOR THE PRESIDENCY

MEXICO CITY, Feb. 25.—President Huerta announced yesterday that he would call an election for president as soon as possible. In the popular opinion Felix Diaz or Francisco De la Barra will be the next president, with Diaz as the favorite. The police are not interfering with political parades boosting the candidacy of both men. Huerta is reported as neutral with no personal designs on the presidency. It is believed the arrival here in April of Porfirio Diaz will aid his nephew's candidacy.

The government is apparently not worrying over the official British note refusing to recognize the new government until a president is selected. It declares it is a virtual acceptance of the new order of affairs here.

NEW COUNTY ASSESSMENTS BEGINS AT NOON MONDAY NEXT; DEPUTIES APPOINTED

The new county assessment begins at noon next Monday, March 3. The men who will have charge of the outside work, known technically and officially as "field work deputies," have been appointed by County Assessor James Sleeper, as follows:

Santa Ana—A. G. Finley and E. F. Waite.
Orange—A. C. Newell.
Tustin—A. L. Cotant.
Anaheim—J. J. Schneider.
Fullerton—Perry Woodward.
Westminster—W. H. Bentley.
Assessor Sleeper requests the cooperation of all citizens in this work, for in that manner a more equitable assessment is insured. These field deputies will at the time they are making assessments, collect on unsecured personal property, basing their collections upon the tax rate for the year just ending. This tax rate varies throughout the county according to the school tax rate prevalent in each school district. In Santa Ana these collections will be based upon the tax rate of $1.05 per each $100 for county purposes and $1.45 for school purposes.

ARE FIGHTING ANDERSON'S MEASURE

Clubs Interested in Proposed
Abolition of Law in Payment of Women Teachers

W. C. T. U. LIKELY TO CONDEMN BILL

Mrs. Dorsey of Los Angeles is One of Leaders Against Killing the Present Law

"An act to prevent discrimination against female teachers."

"Approved March 30, 1874.

"Females employed as teachers in the public schools of this state shall in all cases receive the same compensation as is allowed male teachers for like services when holding the same grade certificates."

This is the wording of a law that has been on the statute books of California since 1874. In the January session State Senator J. J. Anderson of Santa Ana introduced into the legislature a bill to abolish the law. Thereby he seems to have started something.

From various parts of the state come reports that women are proposing to put up a fight against Anderson's bill. One of the leaders in that movement is Mrs. Helen Dorsey, assistant superintendent of the Los Angeles schools.

Mrs. Dorsey was in Santa Ana last week and talked the matter over with several Santa Ana women, including Mrs. I. B. Norman, a member of the Santa Ana board of education and of the executive committee of the Kibell Society. The executive committee is reported to have concluded the matter would more properly come within the sphere of the Woman's Club, the Women's Civics Club and the W.C.T.U. In fact, the matter is scheduled for consideration at the meeting of the W.C.T.U. this afternoon. The women believe that the removal of the law would open the way for discrimination against women teachers. "I have talked to a number of women," said Mrs. Lea Warren, president of the Santa Ana W.C.T.U., "and they are strongly opposed to the repeal of the law. I believe the W.C.T.U. this afternoon will pass resolutions condemning Mr. Anderson's measure to repeal the law. I received a letter today from Mrs. Dorsey of Los Angeles, in which she stated that in her opinion the law has been one of the principal reasons why the salaries paid women teachers in California have been as good as they have been. Mrs. Dorsey states that she does not think the law has been a dead letter by any means."

Senator Anderson was in Riverside today and could not be interviewed in regard to the bill. It is known, however, that he has prepared or expects to prepare a statement to be given to the public in defense of his position. He held a conference with Mrs. W. M. Smart, a member of the school board, in regard to the matter last week. His position is that the law has not been enforced, and even if followed does not allow of the payment of salaries according to efficiency. That is, he thinks a good woman teacher should be paid more than a poor man teacher, and that a good man teacher should be paid more than a poor woman teacher. Senator Anderson's statement in regard to the measure will probably appear in the Register in the next two or three days.

A Long Beach paper has the following: "I am in hearty accord with the movement among women teachers of California looking to organized opposition to the bill introduced by State Senator Anderson, of Santa Ana," said Mrs. W. S. Brayton, "and I really think it the civic duty of all women of this state to do what they may in the campaign begun by the teachers. To quote what another woman has well written, by this bill Senator Anderson would repeal a law which has been in force for thirty-nine years with fine educational results. This law provides against discrimination in salary in the public schools of the state on account of sex. California has demanded equal preparation upon the part of men and women teachers and equal work both as to quality and quantity, and justly as to salaries required for equal work. Thus salaries in this progressive western state have been based upon considerations of justice and not upon sex. If they had been based upon sex it would have driven many of the best women out of the state and profession. The pay could never have been large enough to attract any large number of vigorous men."

IN THE JUSTICE COURT

POISON SUSPECT
HEARING IS DELAYEDFullerton Negro Charged With Alleged Crime Has Brief
Arraignment

Because of the illness of one of the chief witnesses for the prosecution, the preliminary examination of Sam Nettles, a negro, charged with attempting to poison his stepdaughter, was continued this morning by Justice Cox until March 4. The postponement was requested by the district attorney's office and agreed to by the defense. H. C. Head is attorney for Nettles.

Nettles, or Nutties as he is known, is a resident of Fullerton. He was arrested a week ago by Marshal French of that city, on suspicion of trying to poison his stepdaughter, a girl known as Tansie Belle Nutties. The marshal was called to the home of this family Monday night, and his attention was called to a box of candy on a table that had been saturated with sulphuric acid. The family was much excited over the matter and Sam expressed himself as being very anxious to catch the party who committed the act. The marshal took charge of the candy, and Tuesday morning began a hunt for the one who had bought it, and in a short time found that Sam had bought the acid at Finch's drug store, saying he wanted it for something about the stable where he was working. The marshal began to quiz the negro about the matter and he denied ever

OWENS VALLEY APPLES

Rich Soil and Perfect Climate the Reason

Everyone is realizing the extent and value of the apple crop. They see its great possibilities as a means of becoming wealthy by growing and shipping this always popular fruit. Dazzling as were the prospects of the citrus fruit business, the cultivation of apples and pears is just as safe and profitable, with as great a market and less risk.

This explains the keen interest that is being shown by prospective settlers in Owens Valley, Inyo county, Cal. Apple land that has every requisite for the growing of perfect apples and pears is scarce. The conditions in Owens Valley are perfect. It has rich, deep soil; is perfectly protected by mountains from fogs and hot dry winds that prevail in other sections; it is free from pests and blight.

Such conditions are the best possible for all kinds of farming. Besides being the finest in the world for dairying, the land can be put to potatoes, corn, etc., that can be grown while waiting for orchards to mature. Chickens and hogs are being raised with great success in Owens Valley; honey is another profitable product.

Owens valley land can be bought at a remarkably low price, even with such advantages. Some of the best land in the valley is owned by the Owens Valley Improvement Company, who have developed and placed it on the market. It is all under an excellent irrigation system. Located near Independence, the county seat of Inyo county, and Manzanar, both thriving towns. Only 250 miles from Los Angeles, on the main trunk line of the Southern Pacific to the east.

buying it, and said he had never been in the store in his life. About this time Mr. Vermuelen, the other druggist, stated the colored man had been to his store and asked for the acid, and that he told him he was out; that he watched him when he went out of the store; that he went up to Finch's store and went in and later came out. Marshal French brought him to the county jail, where he was locked up and where he is still being held.

It is also alleged that some of this acid had been placed in the girl's shoes, and some on her clothing.

Tumultuous Terrones

With tumultuous and offensive misconduct is Adolfo Terrones, a Mexican resident of Newhope, where he has been of late a conspicuous citizen. At present Adolfo is languishing in the county jail to await hearing on March 6 before Judge Cox, complaint against him having been sworn to by Trinidad Terrones, also a resident of Newhope. She asserts that not only was her peace and quiet disturbed, but that Adolfo was a disturber of the entire peace of the entire town.

Davidson Gives Bail

Floyd Davidson was released from the county jail this morning by order of Justice Cox upon bail being furnished in his behalf in the sum of $500. Davidson is to be given his hearing on March 12 on the charge of shooting a man named Moore, while he was having a celebration at his by himself one midnight at Brea.

WAR VETERANS IN CALIFORNIA STATE
GET TAX EXEMPTION

Editor The Register—The veterans' exemption, which is in the form of a constitutional amendment introduced by myself in the 1911 session of the legislature and ratified by the people on October 19, 1911, provides exemption from taxation of veterans' property of all kinds to the assessed value of $1000. However, if the veteran owns property here or elsewhere worth more than $5000 (assessed value), then he is to be granted no exemption, the theory being that he is fully able to pay taxes. The exemption applies to all soldiers, sailors and marines who served in time of war, meaning Spanish war veterans and Indian fighters as well as veterans of the Civil war. If the veteran does not own $1000 in property in his own name, then enough of his wife's property to make up the $1000 is to be exempted. The widow of such a veteran is entitled to the exemption, and if there is no widow then the widowed mother is exempted. Another important provision is that pensioned widows, fathers and mothers of soldiers, sailors and marines also get this exemption. It is the most fairly drawn exemption law in the United States. Claim must be made when the assessor comes to assess you. If any person has been denied his rights under this law he may yet secure a refund of taxes paid in the past year. I will help him.

VISITORS COMING IN SPITE OF THE STORM

Santa Ana Has Too Many Real Attractions to be Hidden by a Little Rain

A little rain can't keep visitors in Southern California from coming to Santa Ana whenever they get a chance, and a little rain storm isn't sufficient to keep them away.

"They keep coming just the same," said Secretary Metzgar of the Chamber of Commerce this afternoon as he indicated the big register for the use of visitors in the chamber's exhibit room.

"There is the best testimony to the glories of this city and county," said he as he showed the names of some of the newcomers who have been here even while the rain was coming down.

Among the recent callers were Augustus Guenther, Oakland; Frank M. Kolb, San Diego; Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Allison, White, S. D.; A. E. White, Minneapolis; Leroy Hall, Crawford, Neb.; C. Bishop, Port Townsend, Wash.; N. E. Wray, Tulsa, Cal.; Mrs. P. P. Hansen, Gustine, Cal.; C. R. Wood, Del Rey, Cal.; J. W. Townsend, Portland, Ore.; Shourd C. Betins, Omaha.

"CASCARETS" FOR A SICK, SOUR, STOMACH

Sluggish Bowels Cause Gases,
Sourness and Food
Fermentation

That awful sourness, belching of acid and foul gases; that pain in the pit of the stomach, the heartburn, nervousness, nausea, bloating after eating, feeling of fullness, dizziness and sick headache, means a disordered stomach, which cannot be regulated until you remove the cause. It isn't your stomach's fault. Your stomach is as good as any.

Try Cascarets; they immediately cleanse and regulate the stomach, remove the sour, undigested and fermenting food and foul gases; take the excess bile from the liver and carry off the constipated waste matter and poison from the intestines and bowels. Then your stomach trouble is ended. A Cascaret tomorrow will straighten you out by morning—a 10-cent box from any drug store will keep your stomach sweet; liver and bowels regular for months. Don't forget the children—their little insides need a good, gentle cleansing, too.—Advertisement.

INEBRIACITY CHARGED AGAINST R.V. BRUCE

As a climax to a series of troubles, Robert V. Bruce was taken into custody last night by order of City Marshal Lemman, to answer the charge of being an inebriate. The charge was sworn to by J. H. Scott, county probation officer, and follows the escape of Bruce's son from the Detention Home, where he had been committed after having been given to his father's care, the latter not caring for him satisfactorily. When the boy departed from the home he at once returned to his father, who rooms over the Holmes furniture store on West Fourth street.

TWO SHIFTS WORKING DAY AND NIGHT FOR OIL ON BIXBY RANCH

The Standard Oil Company's well on the Bixby ranch, east of Olive—the first well in the east-of-the-river territory—was put on the drill yesterday.

The shifts of drillers are now driving the hole downward as fast as drills will work. The derrick now knows no cessation of toil. One shift comes on at midnight, another at noon, and the work goes on without pause.

Drilling was started at 8:30 yesterday morning, after weeks of preliminary preparation, during which the 120-foot derrick was erected, machinery set up and quarters for the men built. A big electric light now crowns the derrick and at night lights up the surrounding hills.

POSTOFFICE HOURS AT ORANGE ARE CHANGED

ORANGE, Feb. 24.—A revision of the office hours with the addition of an extra clerk, will be inaugurated at the Orange postoffice commencing tomorrow. Under the new program, made necessary by the late postal regulation ordering that postal employees shall work their hours within a limit of ten, the office will be closed at 6 p. m. After that hour there will be no mail received or dispatched by the local office. Accordingly, any mail to be included in the outgoing mail at 6:10 a. m. must be posted before 6 o'clock the evening before. Likewise the incoming mail at 6:20 p. m. will not be distributed until the next morning. Under the new postal regulations it was necessary to fix the hours in this manner with the present force of clerks. One extra clerk, Miss Emma Schmidt, has been installed at the office, to work regularly a half each day. She will assume her duties tomorrow.

SEASON ADVANCED

Ranchers of this district assert that because of the increased rainfall this year and the propitious weather generally the sugar beet crops are further advanced than they were two years ago, when the season was considered favorable. Last year, owing to the lateness of the rains, the crops were extremely late in maturing. The Holly Sugar Factory is now expecting to begin its operations late in June unless some weather conditions not now foreseen prevent.—Huntington Beach News.

GROWTH OF ORANGE SHOWN BY SCHOOLS

Orange News: Additional statistics concerning the increase of population in this city are presented by L. A. Durfee, superintendent of schools, in his report of the school enrollment of the Orange grammar schools. The report substantiates the claim of nearly 4000 population, as made by the Thurston Directory people.

For the month ending Friday, February 14th, at which time the report was made out, the enrollment shows an increase of 100 pupils over the corresponding month last year. Likewise, the average daily attendance shows an increase of $8 over the same period last year.

Computing on a basis commonly used, of multiplying the school enrollment by five to estimate the population, an increase of 500 is shown for the last year. This would compare very closely with the figures of the Thurston census as the increase in school enrollment for the two years preceding do not show a corresponding increase, and would probably indicate an increase of not more than 1000 population for the three years. The Thurston figures were 982 for three years. It is also evident that the figures compiled by the Thurston census are conservative and do not over-estimate the population.

THE PEOPLE DO RULE

What it means to have a government of the people, for the people and by the people has been signally demonstrated by the State Railroad Commission in recent weeks. Great powers of corporate wealth have been made to feel that the high authority of the people is strong enough to secure justice and fair play. In striking fashion it has been demonstrated that the government and the law is the supreme power in California.

The cases that have been of such tremendous import were the exposure of Patrick Calhoun's high financing of the United Railroads, the refusal to permit the Midway Gas Company to establish a gigantic natural gas monopoly in Southern California, and, lastly, the appearance of the representatives of the Southern Pacific and Union Pacific railroads as petitioners before the Commission, to consider the rights of the people in the dissolution of the Harriman merger.

"You are the president of the Southern Pacific, and you are appearing here as the attorney for the Central Pacific," asked the president of the Railroad Commission, frankly betraying astonishment, of William F. Herrin, when the latter started to examine a witness on the stand. It should be explained that to some degree, theoretically at least, there was conflict between the interests of the two lines.

Apologetically, Mr. Herrin explained that he had "delegated" to another representation of the Southern Pacific.

It was apparent that the high authority of the people wants such mystifying methods eliminated in the future, even though there may have been nothing wrong about it. In other words, the devious ways of corporation management shall not be allowed to baffle the people. The trivial incident had in it a world of import.

Before the unmerging plan can be carried out, the interests of the people are to be considered. There are various trackage agreements and leases of lines proposed that cannot be consummated until after the authorities of the state are consulted. Even the mere fact of the appearance of the Southern Pacific's distinguished staff before the Railroad Commission, respecting it as supreme authority, is full of significance in the political history of the state.

In the United Railroads and Midway Gas Company cases the state authority again encountered big powers of finance, such as in the no distant past trafficked heedless of what the public felt or thought.

The United Railroads even defied a mandate of the Commission to produce records and books. The Commission very promptly and properly regarded records therein as adverse. Patrick Calhoun personally appeared to thunder his protests against the desire of the people's authority to know everything about the corporation's business. It was of no avail. It was demonstrated that in California the regulation of public utilities has gone beyond the stage of mere campaign oratory. State regulation had become a powerful actuality that could not be circumvented or overcome and even crowing millionaires must submit. The application of the United Railroads for permission to issue some two millions in notes was not only denied, but the Commission exposed the difficulties the corporation was in as a result of the gross overcapitalization of the company.

The third of the series of cases that marks an epoch in the history of California involved one of the good old-time projects to build a monopoly that aimed to levy tribute with an iron hand on all Southern California. All the natural gas of the Kern county fields was brought together under one control and a very able scheme was evolved for the maintenance of an absolute monopoly. The duty of the Commission was plain and it nipped the scheme in the bud.

Again it was shown how the habit has grown on the magnates to play fast and loose with the rights of the people. Involved in the scheme was the sale by the Southern Pacific company of gas in the lands which the government is suing to recover from it. The railroad company gained those lands as non-mineral from the government. The State Commission condemns this plan of draining the lands of their value while the government is suing for ownership. While declaring that Uncle Sam undoubtedly is capable of looking after his own interests, the State Commission does safeguard his rights, which are public rights. The attempt to make off with what may prove to be the federal government's property is given as an additional reason for inviting the Midway company to propose a new plan wherein a proper regard for right and justice is shown.

The Commission commends the idea of controlling the natural gas for human use, but it will not permit the creation of a gigantic monopoly out of the natural resource. It announces that if the company will submit a new plan, with the objectionable phases removed, allowance will be made for liberal returns on the undertaking. In other words, the Commission says it believes there should be good profit in such a project, but it does not propose to let anyone make a big grab out of it.

In acting on these cases the State Commission dealt with millions of capital. It dealt with some of the most powerful millionaires and representatives of millionaires in the country. The Commission effectively exposed their high finance and as effectively applies the authority of the people in checking them.

In no state in the Union has state regulation had such pronounced results as in California. Even the splendid record of the federal Interstate Commerce Commission has failed to vindicate so clearly and decisively the high authority of the law and the people and the success of regulation in protecting the public from corporate greed.

There could scarcely be any greater array of cases than the foregoing to test state regulation. It seems to have been no formidable thing to arrive at decisions, for the facts and the law clearly pointed the way. The conclusions of the Commission are irrefutable. Some extremely important precedents are being laid down in the way of halting wrongs and asserting rights. The people rule, beyond all question, in California, and it is very evident that they are going to have fair play from the public service corporations.

LETTER TO ANDERSON

Santa Ana, Cal., Feb. 22, 1913.
Hon. J. N. Anderson,

My Dear Senator:—I have carefully read your communication in yesterday's Register, which shows conclusively that you have not been idle while at the state capital, and that you desire to serve your constituents, and to promote their best interests, and while I do not agree to all the proposed legislation, I can see but little harm to the most of them being enacted into law. Since I have resided in California I have, with the majority of the taxpayers, learned to regard the legislature as a public menace, and as grafting gatherings, for the disbursing and expending of the people's money, obtained by taxation. And just here allow me to enquire where the taxpayer comes in for any relief from his heavy burden by any of your proposed legislation. True, there is the No. 823, changing age of persons liable to poll tax from 21-60 to 21-55. In my humble opinion, that obnoxious and disgraceful poll tax law should not be permitted to stand, but should be wiped out and off altogether.

In the matter of your No. 1368, relating to compulsory vaccination, it was thoroughly considered, and the optional feature obtained when the law was enacted, as of right it should, and no amendment is necessary at this time. "The control of the people over their physical bodies within limitations, should be as absolute as the freedom of conscience." The parents and family physician should exercise that control over their children.

It appears to me that a large number of the proposed legislative measures are introduced merely to prolong the session, and that there should be a law prohibiting any introduction except by petition to the Governor and by him recommended and when their work was done, to adjourn until the Governor should call them together, when in his judgment it should become necessary.

I would like to have a law enacted compensating every voter who goes to the polls and votes, for a day's time, by giving him a check or receipt for the amount that would be good in payment for his taxes, and to eliminate all persons from voting except taxpayers.

Yours respectfully,
J. N. BILL.

BILL MAY ABOLISH
PUBLIC INSTRUCTOR

SACRAMENTO, Feb. 24.—Edward Hyatt, superintendent of public instruction, says:

The purpose and intent of Senate Constitutional Amendment No. 29, and its companion, Senate Bill No. 645, is to abolish the superintendent of public instruction as an officer elected by the people; or, failing that, to take away his present powers and place him under a board appointed by the governor. These measures were brought from the university by Professor Thomas H. Reed. They were introduced in the Senate by Mr. Roynton and in the Assembly by Mr. Morgenstern. The mass of legislation is so great that they might not be apparent unless they were definitely cut out by themselves in this way.

EBELL CLUB MEETING

New President Assumed Duties
—“Everywoman” Presented
by Lillian Goldsmith

An audience that well filled the assembly room of Elks' hall on Saturday afternoon, greeted the new president, Mrs. Samuel Nau, who graciously assumed the gavel on the resignation of Mrs. J. W. Bishop.

Immediately following the conclusion of the necessary business of the afternoon, Mrs. Nau presented Mrs. Lillian Goldsmith, who needed no introduction to the ladies of the Ebells, all of whom remembered with pleasure her appearance before them last year when her subject was “The Art of Great Artists from an Actress' Point of View.”

Before commencing her reading from “Every Woman,” Mrs. Goldsmith commented upon the change that is taking place in the attitude of the American public toward the drama and plays in general. The intelligent appreciation shown by the theater-going people for plays embodying the classic, the psychic or the spiritual element, points to a revival of the type of drama that is educational and uplifting.

In her selection of the allegorical play, “Every Woman,” Mrs. Goldsmith proves her confidence in the demand of the public for plays of morality and depth. For throughout the play scenes there is no gleam of playfulness or lightness, no attempt to relieve the somber outlines of reality set forth, with any dainty drapery of affection or levity.

But while the whole tone of the play is deeply serious and even painful, such striking truths are uttered, such lessons so clearly pointed, that, as the allegory deepens and expands and the figurative characters are carried on to the dramatic close, the interest grows deeper and more intense, the fascination of the skillfully handled theme becomes stronger and more thrilling, until every sense is spellbound with the beauty and finish of this unusual production.

Mrs. Goldsmith's interpretation was dramatic and artistic in every sense, and gave the deepest pleasure to those fortunate enough to have been present at this reading.

During the business session following the program, it was unanimously voted that the Ebells join the County Federation of Women's Clubs, recently organized.

An announcement was made by the Curator, Mrs. Lawton, that the Nature Study Section would hold an open meeting at the Commercial High School building on Friday afternoon, February 28th at 2:30 o'clock, when Miss Mabel McFadden will give a talk on “Trees and Flowers of California.”

The next meeting of the Ebells is to be called at 2:15 instead of 2:30 as usual, to give more time for the excellent program which will be given at that time.

Whist at the Whitsons

One of the pleasantest of recent social affairs was the whist party given by Dr. and Mrs. L. L. Whitson. The colonial effect particularly appropriate to the season devoted to celebrating the birthday of the immortal George who fathered this Land of the Free, was used most effectively in decorations. A large portrait of Washington, hung in one of the windows was flag draped, and the patriotic colors of red, white and blue were conspicuous throughout the house. Hatchet-shaped tally cards were used in the whist scores and tiny hatchets of after dinner mints were in the dessert course of the dainty refreshments served after the awarding of prizes.

The prize winners in the whist games were Mrs. L. J. Carden, ladies' first prize; Mrs. John Wehrly, second ladies' prize; J. W. Tubbs first prize for men, and C. S. Kendall, men's second prize.

Miss Mattie Whitson and Miss Swartzlander assisted Mrs. Whitson in her duties as hostess.

Entertained Her Class

Miss Lucy Hill entertained her class of Sunday school girls on Saturday afternoon at her home. Washington's birthday decorations were used. The girls played indoor and outdoor games, dressed dolls with tissue paper and otherwise had a good time. The affair marked the close of a contest as to best attendance and records for a certain length of time, and Margaret Galbraith won the class prize. Refreshments were served by the hostess.

New England Supper

The Ladies' Aid Society of the First Presbyterian Church will hold the annual supper at the church, Wednesday evening, February 26th, commencing at 5:30. All members of the church and congregation and the general public are urged to come and enjoy the evening. Free will offering. The proceeds will be devoted to the current expense fund of the church.

AMUSEMENTS

“Freckles”
Among the modern successes of the American stage during the last five years will be found many book plays. Fiction writers many years ago experienced great difficulty gaining managerial consideration for their more or less popular dramatized versions. Those who have read “Freckles” will understand the dramatic possibilities at once, and wonder with curious amazement whether it is possible to stage the beautiful “Lumber lost” with all its atmospheric wonderment.

Gene Stratton-Porter, responsible for this gripping and picturesque nature story, not only gave unlimited scope to the scene painter, but dramatist as well.

Neil Twomey, the dramatist, has added decided interest to her likeable characters and where its literary creator depicted a pen and ink individual, the dramatist with the imperious artistry of his profession has given us a breathing, talking image of those endearing personages found in this vital play of the Indiana swamps.

“Freckles” contains the requisites of a successful modern theme. It is in no way old fashioned or conventional in treatment. It is simply a story of fiction made into an actuality in which there is action, youth and vitality, the essentials in modern playwriting.

Although certain latitudes were taken, the dramatization follows in detail the text of the book. “Freckles” will be presented at the Grand Opera House Saturday, March 1.

HISTORICAL CHAIR AT MISSION TOWN

Father Junipero Serra's Chair In Home of Justice Egan at San Juan Capistrano

[It has long been known that the famous Junipero Serra chair was in the possession of Judge Egan at Capistrano. Indeed, the chair was loaned by Judge Egan to one of the world's fairs, that at St. Louis, if recollection is correct.—Editor's note.]

The historic chair of Father Junipero Serra, the father-president of the early California missions, has just been located in the possession of Judge Richard Egan of Capistrano, and because of the fact that so few articles of furniture and adornment of the early missions have survived the vandals of a later period, the chair is of peculiar historical significance.

With the secularization of the Franciscan missions, the exodus of the Indian neophytes to the mountains and the departure of the Franciscan fathers to Mexico, most of the mission establishments were stripped of their furnishings.

At that period the chair of Father Junipero Serra disappeared from the mission of San Carlos, at Carmel, near Monterey. About forty-five years ago it was located by Don Marcos Forster of Los Flores, broken and disjoined, in an abandoned part of the San Diego mission.

The owner has consented to place the historic chair on exhibition at the Mission Playhouse, San Gabriel, during the present season of the mission play, so that those who go to see the visualization of Father Junipero Serra's evangelizing work among the early Californians upon the stage may see this relic of the by-gone days.

STEFFENS TOLD OF MCNAMARA TRIAL

How Plans Were Laid for Men's Confession—Testimony
Favored Darrow

LOS ANGELES, Feb. 25.—Lincoln Steffens, the magazine writer, testified yesterday in the Darrow defense, telling of the alleged agreement between District Attorney Fredericks and Clarence Darrow regarding the pleas of guilty made by the McNamara brothers. He recited the story under Darrow's questioning. He submitted to cross examination by Special Prosecutor Judge Wheaton Gray. He declared the negotiations leading to the pleas were in progress a week before the alleged bribery of Venetian Lockwood, the testimony purporting to show that no object for bribery existed as the negotiations for the close of the case were already under way.

represented organized labor. J. B. finally agreed on November 26th. On the following Thursday it was decided they should both plead guilty together. After that Judge Bordwell wanted to give J. J. a sentence of fifteen instead of ten years. This caused another delay. Darrow then demanded to know what was the final agreement. Steffens replied:

"That all dynamite prosecutions in the county should be dropped and pursuit of suspected men cease. Nothing was said about eastern cases. The Franklin case was not included in the agreement." Under cross-examination Steffens said that Darrow first suggested settlement of the McNamara cases by negotiations.

Further testimony purporting to prove that negotiations for the McNamara case were in progress before the arrest of Bert Franklin for bribery was given in the Darrow trial today by Leconte Davis, former attorney for the McNamara defense. He declared on the stand that on the day of Franklin's arrest he went to District Attorney Fredericks' office to announce that a plea of guilty would be entered, but Fredericks was not in. Shortly after, he met Darrow in court and accompanied the latter to his private office, where Darrow told him of Franklin's arrest.

Carl E. White, a newspaper man, was called by the defense to testify that John R. Harrington, a Chicago prosecution witness, told him that so far as he knew Darrow did nothing morally or criminally wrong in the McNamara trial. Harrington recently testified that Darrow showed him $10,000, saying he had used it to "reach a couple of jurors."

BOOMING G.S. PATTON FOR GOVERNORSHIP

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 25.—Politicians here today are discussing with considerable interest a report that Hon. George S. Patton of Los Angeles is likely to be the next Democratic candidate for governor of California. Men who keep in touch with the political barometer are inclined to the opinion that Southern California has a paramount claim upon this nomination, inasmuch as that section has not had a gubernatorial candidate for something like thirty years. Patton is one of the best known Democrats in the southland and one of the few in that part of the state who is well known in the north. He was chairman of the convention that nominated Franklin K. Lane for the governorship, and was one of the Woodrow Wilson candidates for elector at the last election.

MANN LAW HELPS U.S. TO PROTECT HUMAN BODY

So Decides U. S. Supreme Court
In Jack Johnson White
Slavery Case

WASHINGTON, Feb. 25.—The supreme court decided yesterday that Jack Johnson must face trial on the charge of white slavery.

Johnson's attorneys had asked the court to dismiss the white slave indictment returned in Chicago following the Lucile Cameron affair, on the grounds that the Mann act, upon which the indictment is based, was unconstitutional.

Four other similar cases are included in the decision, Johnson's leading the list. The principal finding was that the human body as well as merchandise may be protected in interstate commerce by the government.

Jack Johnson and seven men and women convicted in Florida, Ohio and Texas of trafficking in women, squarely tested the validity of the Mann law. They declared that persons, unlike other articles of commerce, were not subject to the regulation of the national interstate commerce laws.

Johnson's appeal to the high court was from the action of Federal Judge Kenesaw Mountain Landis, of the federal district court of Illinois, in dismissing Johnson's habeas corpus suit to be released from jail under $30,000 bail after his indictment by the federal grand jury at Chicago on Nov. 7, 1912, for alleged "white slavery." The indictment against Johnson charges him with violating the Mann law by transporting Belle Schreiber, alias Mrs. Jack Johnson, from Pittsburgh to Chicago on Aug. 10, 1912. The Schreiber woman was an alleged "white wife" of the negro pugilist.

Judge Landis refused cash or surety company bail for Johnson. The negro then brought his habeas corpus suit. The government contended that Johnson's appeal should be thrown out, alleging he could not test the validity of the "white slave" law by habeas corpus proceedings, but only after conviction. Later Johnson secured bail.

The other defendants in the cases decided yesterday were:

Effie Hoke and Basile Economides, each sentenced to six years in prison by the Texas federal court for alleged enticement of three young girls from New Orleans to a Beaumont, Texas, house of ill fame.

Louis Athanasaw and Mitchell Sampson, for alleged enticement of women from Atlanta to a Tampa, Fla., resort. Athanasaw was sentenced to two years and six months imprisonment, and Sampson to one year and three months.

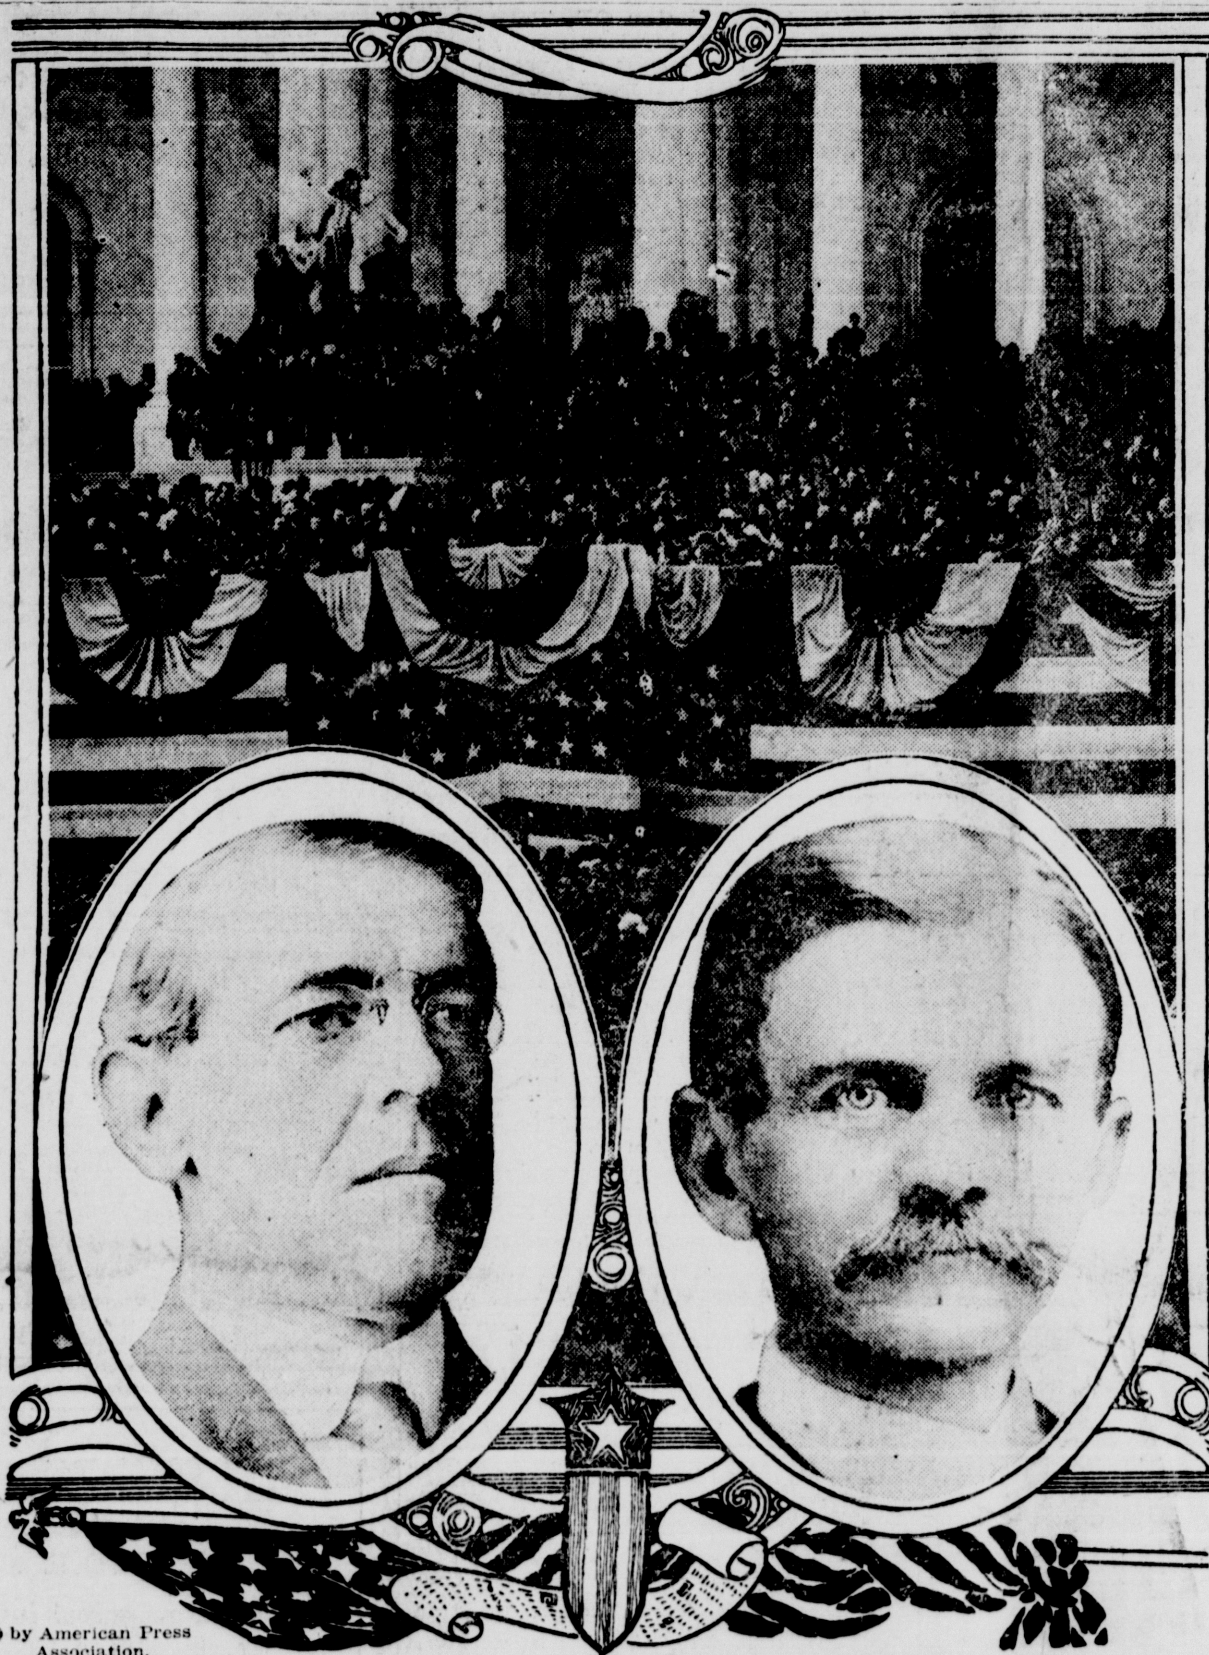

Emma Harris, Bessie Green and Della Bennett of Cincinnati, for alleged enticement of women from Chicago to Cincinnati. They received long prison sentences.

Purchase or gift of railroad tickets to the women alleged to be "enslaved" was the gist of each indictment. Jack Johnson was charged with paying the fare of the Schreiber woman.

The Mann law, which the attorney general declared before the supreme court was passed to prohibit "villainous and international traffic in women and girls," was aimed at persons who "transport or cause to be transported or who aid or assist in obtaining transportation for any woman or girl for the purpose of prostitution or debauchery, or for any other immoral purpose, or with intent to induce or entice or compel such woman or girl to a house of prostitution or to give herself up to debauchery."

INAUGURAL PLANS ARE NEARING COMPLETION IN WASHINGTON

WASHINGTON, Feb. 25.—A coat of white paint applied today to the square reading desk from which Woodrow Wilson will deliver his inaugural address March 4 constituted one of the real "finishing touches" to the great temporary structure that has gone up on the east front of the capital in preparation for inauguration.

Across a stretch of asphalt pavement carpenters are working on the rampart-like stand from which the battery of cameras and motion picture machines will be trained upon the inaugural scene, but the managers of affairs at the capital promise that a week before the day of action practically every detail will have been completed.

Demands from photographers forward the stand, so that the crowd between the camera stand have re-land may come within range of the sulted in the extension of the struce-president's voice.

Provision is now made for it. After some difficulty, provision has least 50 cameras. These will be placed in the square center platform, guests, who will number form rising a few feet above the old nearly 200, off the inaugural stand and side edge of the immense 8,000 seatup through the crowded streets to the stand, which stretches back in a gentle White House to the official review, rise to the doors of the capitol. Special stairways in the rear of the

In front of the inaugural platform, stands and a fleet of motor cars will flank it on the one side by the mid-toe used.

Shipmen from Annapolis and on the President Taft and President-elect other by the cadets from West Point, Wilson will pass into the capitol up will be Major General Leonard Wood the broad steps of the senate wing, and his staff, guarding the space he and, after the ceremonies in the senate between Wilson and the camera ramate chamber, will go through the cent-part. As he begins his inaugural ad-trial door of the capitol to the inaug-dress these guards will draw in to-ural stand.

WATER COMMISSION BILL IS DISCUSSED BY THE CHAIRMAN OF CONSERVATION COMMISSION

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 24.—The conservation bill, which was prepared by the State Conservation Commission, promises to provoke more earnest debate than any other measure pending in the legislature. Former Governor George C. Pardee, president of the commission, makes the following statement in support of the bill:

"The Conservation Commission and a whole lot of other people believe the water bill is good. It provides a procedure by which water rights may be quickly, inexpensively and finally settled—which is a consummation devoutly to be wished. For, in spite of everything the attorneys for public service and other corporations say to the contrary, the water laws of this state are in very bad shape, and no man having water rights on a stream can know what his rights are until he has either sued or been sued by every other water right claimant on that stream.

"Every water right suit that has been brought, and every one that is being brought, is a waste of money and there are many such—has bound only the parties to that particular suit. Nobody else is bound by it; and everybody else can sue those whose rights have been declared by the decisions in these cases. Under the procedure proposed in the bill, however, all the rights on a stream may be quickly, inexpensively and finally settled in one proceeding. And there are people who are mean enough to say that that is one of the reasons why some of our good lawyer friends oppose the bill.

"The bill also provides for an indeterminate franchise for power companies. It gives them the right to appropriate and use water undisturbed—so long as they obey the law—for twenty years and as much longer as the public, not wanting to take over the plant, will permit. And when the public decides, after twenty years, to take over the plant, the the bill, too, were I in the power business.

"You have heard, or will hear, that the existing power companies favor the bill because it will give them a monopoly of the power business in the state, because it will prevent the investment of capital in power plants. That same thing was said two years ago when the present water law was passed. But the fact is that the Water Commission has had fifty or sixty applications for water power permits under the present law, and has granted quite a number, under which it is proposed to spend something over $6,000,000. And the present law is not so liberal, either to the public or the corporations, as the proposed bill is.

"We have heard, and will hear, that the existing power companies favor the proposed bill for the reason that, under its provision, no new company can compete with the old companies. Take that $20,000,000 corporation as an illustration: It must pay dividends and bond interest on its $20,000,000. It must also provide a sinking fund with which to pay off its bonds, say $10,000,000. Can that company compete with a company or companies that, under the proposed bill, which pays returns on only $6,000,000, and which will have returned to it, if the public buys the plant, all its investment, plus 10 per cent? Of course the existing companies don't like the proposed bill.

"Another important provision of the bill is the regulation of water appropriations. As things used to be, anybody could go on a stream, post and record its notice, and get a water right, of more or less validity, whether he used the water or not. The law, to be sure, said that he must use the water within a certain period or lose his right to it. But nothing ever hindered the putting up and recording of a new notice as soon as the previous one expired by limitation. The result was that, in this way, very valuable water rights have been kept in cold-storage for long periods, the appropriators neither using them themselves nor permitting anyone else to use them. The public is greatly interested in seeing that its water rights are used as soon as and as long as they can be of benefit to the public—and the cold-storage of the people's water rights is a distinct injury to the public.

"Suppose, too, that a power company, which hires its lawyers by the year, has, as not a few of them have, a lot of valuable water rights in cold-storage, neither using them itself nor permitting anybody else to use them in competition with itself. I happen along and propose to appropriate and use some of those rights. The company says 'No.' I say, 'But you have no legal right to those unused water rights.' The company says, 'We know that, but we don't propose to have them used in competing with us. And if you attempt to appropriate and use them, we'll sue you to the supreme court of the United States and back again.'

"So, I, not caring to appropriate a long, vexatious and expensive lawsuit, drop the whole business, and the corporation continues to hold in cold-storage water rights to which it has no legal right or title; and the public, as usual, gets the worst of it.

"The existing law declares all such unused water rights invalid. But it provides no machinery whereby by any particular right thus held may be declared invalid except by a private party bringing a suit for that purpose. Water rights, being the property of the public, and their use being of great importance to the public, the law should provide some machinery whereby the state, rather than private parties, may clear away these unlawful cold-stored water appropriations and restore them to the public, so that they may be used for the benefit of the public. The proposed bill will do just that. And, therefore, it is not popular with the lawyers whose power-company clients have a lot of water rights in unlawful cold-storage, by which means they are keeping from use, for the benefit of the public, very valuable public property.

"Another and a very valuable thing the proposed bill attempts to do is to straighten out the tangle of riparian rights. You know that under the court-made law of this state, riparian proprietors can and do compel would-be appropriators and users of water to go without water for their lands, while the water which they could use and ought to be allowed to use, runs to waste. A great land owner, for instance, neither uses himself nor permits the Madera people to use an ocean of water which he demands—and enforces the demand—shall run by his land into the ocean. The bill provides that, if the riparian proprietor cannot or will not use the water himself, somebody else shall be given the opportunity to use it. But if he doesn't use it within a certain time, he loses his right to it as a riparian proprietor, but may, the same as anybody else, use it by appropriation. The state wants its water used—it ought not to care who uses it, the riparian proprietor or the appropriator, or whether it is used by Jones or Brown, so long as it is used.

"Of course, some of the riparian proprietors don't like this provision of the bill. It threatens to cut off a useless but valuable monopoly which they have long enjoyed and which they want to continue to enjoy. Small blame to 'em! I would feel just as they do, were I in their place. But their feelings or desires in the matter should cut no figure when the public good is to be considered. 'Use the water or give someone else the opportunity to use it,' is what the bill says to the riparian proprietor—'get out of the manger or eat the hay yourself.'

"Of course, the attorneys for the riparian proprietors all say that this provision of the bill is unconstitutional. But a lot of other attorneys, who are not retained by riparian proprietors, are not so sure about it. At any rate, the supreme court of this state has been loosening up some of its riparian rights decisions of late years. And it is worth while to have a legislative, as well as a judicial declaration concerning the law of riparian rights—and let's see what the supreme court will do with that legislative declaration."

Why Salves Can't Cure Eczema

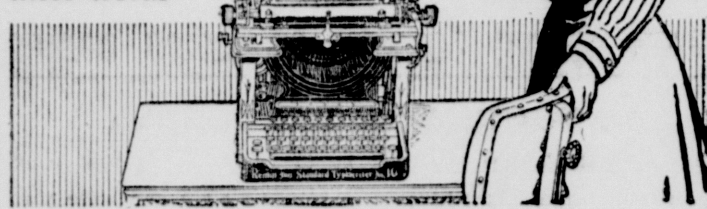

Since the old-fashioned theory of curing eczema through the blood has been given up by scientists, many different salves have been tried for skin diseases. But it has been found that these salves only clog the pores and cannot penetrate to the inner skin below the epidermis where the eczema germs are lodged. This is the quality of penetrating—probably explains the tremendous success of the well known D.D.D. eczema remedy, oil of wintergreen, thymol, glycerine, etc., as compounded in D.D.D. Prescription. 10 GREAT POINTS To Consider

Before you make an investment in a piece of "Old Mother Earth" in California.

1. Location.
2. Soil.
3. Water Supply.
4. Climatic Conditions.
5. Products.
6. Market.
7. Profits.
8. Cost.
9. Terms.
10. Methods.

If you carefully investigate the above ten points and find them safe, sure and satisfactory, you cannot go astray in making an investment. Now these are the very points we want you to investigate about the Yucaipa Valley. If you will make a one day trip with us, we will show you the whole proposition and let you decide for yourself. We want you to ask us any hard question you can think of to bring out the truth. The more you know about the Yucaipa Valley, the more you will like it. If you want to invest in a safe proposition and take advantage of a great opportunity, go with us on one of these little trips only 64 miles away, right here near home, and get valuable information. It is well worth while to see this big development, the new community of homes, ranches, schools, stores, where every child has a chance to go to school. What a chance for home-seekers, for young men not afraid to work, for practical ranchers.

We are now organizing Santa Ana Orchards Company No. 2. This is for those persons who want to invest but are not ready to move to Yucaipa till after or who want to grow an orchard or sell later for a big price. The planting and care by an expert at a saving of one-third the cost by this multiple cooperative method. Come once and be one of the number. Three trips a week. Phone us and we will do the rest, 970 W. 504 North Main street, Santa Ana.

tainty weather caused local business at the produce market to be dull yesterday, but out-of-town demand was reported good by most of dealers.

Large receipts of apples were again ordered. The market is very well supplied with all good winter varieties, and prices show little tendency to change from their present level. Bananas arrived in large quantities. Weather conditions are favorable for low prices.

Onion receipts were heavy, and retail large shipments of onions were in. The onion market was weak. In some instances the yellow brown varieties were quoted as low as 60 cents a sack, but the stock is not first class. Prices generally ranged around 75 cents to $1 a sack,atoes hang about the same level, though there is a shade steadier in the market. Small shipments of peas and beans came in. Beans are selling around 25 cents a pound, beans at about 35 cents. The late beans are in the South. Asparagus was quoted around 45 cents, and been steadily cheaper the last days. Dried bean receipts were in, and they remain rather firm. Beans are steady received.

Local receipts of apples were quoted up in most instances, owing to better receipts. Petalunas were on low prices in San Francisco, but were firm at the figure which has prevailed for the last week or so, and there were no changes in cheese prices. All three probably be firm until after the middle of the month, and then should gradually decline. Exchange. Reported receipts: Eggs, 455 cases; butter, 25,272 lbs.; cheese, 879 pounds; potatoes, sacks; beans, 25 sacks; apples, boxes.

MAGAZINE PRIZE MAKING ORATORS CAPTURED BY AT THE STATE SANTA ANA UNIVERSITY

Baraca and Philathea Classes of Presbyterian Church Are Winners

Debating Societies Flourishing Among Students During This School Term

Clever literary ability supplemented by a keen appreciation of the humorous and dramatic possibilities offered by an incomplete serial story that was running in Everybody's Magazine under the title of "The Jennie Bryce Disappearance Bureau," has brought a prize of $100 to the Baraca and Philathea classes of the First Presbyterian church of Santa Ana.

Announcement of this interesting fact is made by Everybody's in a letter to the Register received today, in which it is stated that the mock trial in the "Jennie Bryce" affair, which was held by the two church societies indicated in the Presbyterian church here last December, has been awarded the prize, the largest amount given to any California competitor. In all, the magazine people distributed $11,500 among contestants.

The "trial" was held here under plans arranged by Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Morrow, who were the teachers of all the "actors" who participated in the event. The "stage setting" was arranged in the church, and a number of prominent citizens comprised the officers of the court and jury. Judge Z. B. West of the superior court, presided with all the dignity of a genuine court hearing. Attorney Koepsel of the district attorney's office, "prosecuted the villain," the late Bob Squires was sheriff, and City Clerk Joe Burke officiated as clerk of the court. And there were many others who took prominent part.

STOCK INTERESTS AT PANAMA FAIR

Sheep and Swine Will Compete for Prizes—Pet Stock Assn.

Will Work for Display

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 24.—D. O. Lively, chief of the department of live stock of the Panama-Pacific International Exposition, has received advice that supplemental premiums have been offered by the following organizations: American Hampshire Sheep Breeders Association, $1,000; American Rambouillet Sheep Breeders' Association, $1,000; American Cotswold Registry Association, $500; American & Delaware-Merino Record Association, $500; Continental Dorset Club, $500.

"Other associations are expected to take action," said Chief Lively. "The demand for sheep of good blood is greater than the supply, and the flock masters of the South and Central America have signified their intention of making liberal purchases at the 1915 world's fair."

"Australian and New Zealand will doubtless be represented with splendid exhibits. If conditions in parts of Europe improve there will be a heavy representation in this branch."

"All of the west is practically coming under the dominion of the swine, the great American mortgage lifter," says Mr. Lively. "Oriental countries are going in for not only increased but improved swine raising."

"The interest in this industry was never greater than at present, and the display at our exposition will be in keeping with this interest."

"I have been advised of the following special prizes that have been offered by the Breed Record Association:

"American Hampshire Swine Record Association, $3,000; American Berkshire Association, $2,000; American Yorkshire Club, $500. Other associations will take early action."

The National Pet Stock Association will lend its influence in an effort to have at the Panama-Pacific International Exposition the greatest and most representative display of pet animals ever assembled. This branch will be international in character and will be participated in by many countries.

EXTENSIVE IMPROVEMENTS ON MANY STREETS ORDERED IN BY THE CITY TRUSTEES

Dispatch marked the meeting of the city trustees last night and as there were only four citizens in attendance the local legislators got through with the business before them in exactly fifty minutes. Trustee Grubb was the only absentee.

The first order of business was the final passage of the ordinance ordering the sewers on the south side, which had been delayed because of errors in previous proceedings. This required less than five minutes and the new ordinance was adopted without debate.

Other improvement work was also ordered, the placing of cement curbs or sidewalks, or both, on streets where such work had been previously ordered but where property owners have been dilatory being the main object. A resolution was adopted ordering these improvements on the following streets wherever such delinquency exists:

On the north side of East Third street from Spurgeon street to the Jennings tract; on East Washington avenue from the Blodgett tract to the east line of C street; on the west side of South Flower street to the north line of Highland street from west First street; on East Second street between Santa Fe street and McClay street; on the north side of East Sixth street between Bush and Spurgeon; on the east side of Lacy street between East Fourth and Fifth streets; on the south side of East Fifth street between Lacy and D streets; on East Fourth street east from the railroad tracks to the city limits, and on West Sixth street from Garnsey west.

The city attorney was instructed to ascertain what other streets there may be that are also in this category and submit the complete list to the trustees at next meeting so all may be included.

To Remove Pepper Trees

Trustee McPhee informed his colleagues that on French street between Second and Third there are several large pepper trees that overhang the sidewalks, and which he characterized as nuisances. Fred Mitchell owns about half this block and is willing to have cement curbs put in if the city will order the improvement. This was done. The other owner is A. J. Thrallkoll, who resides at Mayfield, Ky.

Other Improvements

Orders were issued to notify the Southern Counties Gas Company that street improvement work is to be done on East Fourth street and the company has twenty days within which to prepare to place new gas mains in that street, as it contemplates. The gas people wish to take out the two-inch pipes now in the ground there and substitute four-inch mains.

Trustees Grubb and Alderman were appointed to confer with Mr. King looking to the opening of a strip of land near the slaughterhouse, now owned by the Pacific Electric railway, so that the road there will be a through one.

Joint Use of Poles Ordered

Report was made by a special committee composed of Trustee McPhee and City Surveyor Finley to the effect that the corporations now using poles for wires on East Fourth street shall all use one pole for their joint purposes, commencing thirty days from date, and have such work completed within four months. About thirty days before this time limit has expired, similar orders will be issued in reference to other streets.

Regulating Vehicle Hire

Upon recommendation of Trustee McPhee, City Attorney Heathman was instructed to prepare an ordinance to regulate and fix the maximum rates of fare that may hereafter be legally charged by owners of autos and other vehicles that are for hire, the maximum rate for one passenger for a distance of ten blocks or less to be not more than 50 cents and 25 cents for each additional passenger; 75 cents for one passenger and 25 cents for each additional passenger to the city limits, and no extra charge if the passengers wish to return immediately; $2.50 to be the maximum charge for one or more passengers for a greater distance. Waiting time charge to be not more than $2 per hour. All rental drivers must have a sign on their vehicles displaying the legal rates of fare.

To Cut Down Trees

City Surveyor Finley was granted permission to cut down several acacia trees at the northeast corner of First and Main streets.

Drinking Fountain Ordered

Upon report of Trustee Alderman it was ordered that a drinking fountain to cost $65 be placed in the main hallway of the city hall.

Guide Marks on Streets

Dr. Dobson addressed the trustees on behalf of the Santa Ana Auto Club to have the street crossings marked so that all drivers cannot mistake or readily forget which way they must drive to safeguard the lives of pedestrians and other drivers. He suggested that these marks be painted on the street surface. He expressed the opinion that it will tend to minimize accidents. The circle is to be placed in the center of the street intersections. The request was, upon motion of Mr. McPhee, granted. The experiment will be tried on four or five streets.

FOR DANDRUFF AND FALLING HAIR—25 CENT "DANDERINE"

Save your hair! Danderine destroys dandruff and stops falling hair at once—Grows hair, we prove it.

If you care for heavy hair, that glistens with beauty and is radiant with life; has an incomparable softness and is fluffy and lustrous you must use Danderine, because nothing else accomplishes so much for the hair.

Just one application of Knowlton's Danderine will double the beauty of your hair, besides it immediately dissolves every particle of dandruff; you cannot have nice, heavy, healthy hair if you have dandruff. This destructive scurf robs the hair of its lustre, its strength and its very life, and if not overcome it produces a feverishness and itching of the scalp; the hair roots fanish, loosen and die; then the hair falls out fast.

If your hair has been neglected and is thin, faded, dry, scraggly or too oily, don't hesitate, but get a 25 cent bottle of Knowlton's Danderine at any drug store or toilet counter; apply a little as directed and ten minutes after you will say this was the best investment you ever made.

We sincerely believe, regardless of everything else advertised that if you desire soft, lustrous, beautiful hair and lots of it—no dandruff—no itching scalp and no more falling hair—you must use Knowlton's Danderine. It eventually—why not now? A 25 cent bottle will truly amaze you.—Advertisement.
